The ceremony was performed in the parlor of the residence of the bride's parents by Rev. Dr. Martin D. Hardin, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. The wedding was beautiful and impressive in its simplicity.

Miss Elizabeth Chambers sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mr. James F. Wright, of Portsmouth, Va., was best man, while Misses Anna Wilson and Florence Thomas, granddaughters of the parents of the bride, and Messrs. W. E. Chambers and E. J. Parrish were groomsmen. More popular couples have wedded in this section of the State than Miss Chambers and Dr. Wright. The bride is a gentlewoman of the sturdiest type. A Cascarett every night before going to bed will "work" while you sleep, and make you "feel fine in the morning."

If you have been neglecting yourself for some time, take a Cascarett night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "catarctic habit."

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time. That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise, take Cascarett, the sweet, fragrant, harmless little vegetable tablets, that "act like exercise" on your bowels, and gently but powerfully clean out and disinfect the whole digestive canal.

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.
